PEOPLE'S EDUCATION SOCIETY'S
SIDDHARTH COLLEGE OF LAW

● The Institution : Aims & Objects ●

People's Education Society, which conducts Siddharth College of law; was founded on 8th July, 1945 by Bharat Ratna Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, M.A., Ph.D., D.Sc. (London), LL.D. (Columbia), D.Lit. (Osmania), Barrister-at-law.

People's Education Society derives its inspiration from the teaching and ideals of Lord Buddha. It believes in the principles of social justice. Its functions for establishing social justice. Its primary aim is to promote higher education among the poorer people in general and Buddhists, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other Backward Classes in particular. Its motto is "Knowledge and love for knowledge is power and Love governs the whole universe. According to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar the object of the people's Education Society is not merely to give education but to give social democracy. This is what modern India needs and this is what all well-wishers of India must promote. The society is inspired by five great ideals of the founder, The ideal of knowledge, the ideals of compassion, the ideal of democracy, the ideal of equality and the ideal of justice.

The Siddharth College of law was established in June, 1956, with a view to spread legal education and impart knowledge, amongst the poor and the middle classes. The college is named after 'Siddharth' to commemorate the noble ideals and teachings of Lord Buddha and housed in Fort area at Anand Bhavan which is a convenient place for the earners and learners. Ever since the establishment of the College in 1956 awareness in the students community is in respect of legal knowledge particularly about the rights enshrined and the duties cast in regard to the fulfillment of the obligations acts upon the college in regard to the shaping of the students career, it provides enough opportunities by undertaking extra curricular activities in various fields like Moot Court, Mock Trials, Legal Aid Seminars, Debates. Elocution Competitions, Sports, etc. with a view to bring out hidden talents and have the best all round intellectual, physical and moral development.

During the first academic year 1956-57, the college had a strength of 223 students, which has over the years increased to 1200. The College today occupies a unique position in the country in the field of legal education which serves the long felt need of the earners and learners.

The College has established a Legal Aid centre in 1979-80, with a view to provide to the door steps of those who need timely aid for redressing their grievances by means of advice in the Courts. By establishing the Legal Aid Centre, the College has taken a step forward in the direction of making study of law as a realistic study for the students who prepare themselves for meeting the challenges in the future life.
